

Senior Bulletin
Thursday, September 2, 2010

If you are applying for a scholarship that requires a transcript, please be specific as to whether it should be official or unofficial on your request to Mrs. Vieux, Registrar. Thank you!

Check out the Scholarship Bulletin for scholarships that are due October 1st!

Questbridge is a non-profit program designed to help high-achieving low-income students to gain admission and full four year scholarships to leading colleges. The National College Match application is available on the Questbridge website at www.questbridge.org. Application deadline is September 30, 2010.

Auburn University in Auburn, AL is offering several academic scholarships to incoming freshman with various deadlines. For more information logon to www.auburn.edu/apply or inquire in the guidance office.

Attn Seniors of Native American decent: Employment, training programs, and scholarships are available to you. Please visit the following website <http://www.collegefund.org/scholarships/main.html> for various scholarships.

Seniors: Please be aware that if you are applying to Indian River State College after graduation, you must include IRSC on your SAT and ACT applications under colleges to receive your scores. Their code # is 001493. Failure to include IRSC will mean you will have to pay the SAT or ACT $20 later on in order to have your scores sent to the college. You can include up to 4 colleges on the applications for FREE when you apply to take the tests!

Trinity College and the University of Alabama have sent informational pamphlets. If interested, stop by the guidance office.

Tufts University invites prospective students and parents to a university information session on:

Sunday, September 12, 2010 at 2:00 p.m.

Miami Marriott Biscayne Bay

1633 North Bayshore Drive

Miami, FL 33132

RSVP: <http://admissions.tufts.edu/RSVP>